

SPRING'S MAGIC TOUCH INSPIRES A REPORTER

Calls to His Muse and Composes Panegyric on Spring.

Tuesday was an ideal day, in fact it was a glorious day; the sun shone in all its splendor, the blue sky was bedecked with fleecy clouds, and the atmosphere was just cool enough to be pleasant. Every living thing seemed to appreciate the prevailing weather conditions. The little children strolled the hillside in search of wild flowers, the old dog basked in the sunlight as though life was one sweet dream, the little birds up in the trees sang until their tiny throats almost burst, and even the fresh green grass seemed to say "Spring! It is spring!"

While Zion was enjoying this delightful weather, some of the Southern States contented themselves with thunderstorms, causing general rain or snow and thunderstorms, with high winds over the Southern part of the country east of the Rocky mountain slope. Cairo, St. Louis, Little Rock and North Platte reported the largest amounts of precipitation. Over the Pacific States, upper Mississippi valley and lake region the barometric pressure was high, producing fair weather over a large area.

Forecast—Wednesday fair and warmer. Thursday—fair to clear. The Salt Lake City office of the United States weather bureau for the twenty-four hours ending at 6 p. m. was as follows:

Maximum temperature, 67 degrees.
Minimum temperature, 46 degrees.
Mean temperature, 56 degrees, which is 1 degree above normal.
Total excess of temperature since the first of the month, 3 degrees.
Accumulated excess of temperature since January 1, 226 degrees.
Total precipitation, none.
Total precipitation since the first of the month, .39 inch, which is .01 inch below normal.
Accumulated deficiency of precipitation since January 1, 2.59 inches.
Relative humidity at 6 p. m., 38 per cent.

TWO CARRIED TO DEATH OVER SPOKANE FALLS

SPOKANE, Wash., May 5.—Two men, H. W. Enkeling and Grant Powell, were swept over the great falls of the Spokane river today and drowned. Three men were removing some timbers under the Washington street bridge this afternoon, working on a raft that was fastened to the bridge by a rope. The rope broke and the swift waters caught the raft. As they rushed by the Howard street bridge, two blocks below, men threw ropes toward them, and A. Simpson seized one and was saved. The other two men jumped for the ropes, but missed, and a moment later they were swept over the falls.

BUTTE WAIF A HUSTLER: LIKEWISE A SPENDTHRIFT

The father of Willie Yutz, the fourteen-year-old boy who recently ran away from his home in Butte and was picked up here by Probation Officer Thomson, was heard from Tuesday. He said he would arrange for a ticket for Willie at once and asked the officers to put him on the train and head him for the smoky city.

The boy is a hustler. He went out Tuesday morning and made fifty cents selling papers, but as he is a "spendthrift," the money was soon gone. He is willing to return to his home.
